Privacy Statement and User Registration

To access some sections of the globalpeaceletslat.org website, users may be asked to register by providing their name, professional affiliation, and contact information. Minors may not register without the express consent of a parent or guardian.

E-mail addresses provided during registration may be used by The Global Peace Lets Talk (the movement) to contact users regarding: (1) information of interest to registered users; (2) major changes to the website or to the Privacy Policy; and (3) information to enable us to better understand our users so that we can improve our services (this may involve feedback on the website and products or services such as user surveys).

The movement is the sole owner of the information collected on this site. The Foundation will not sell or share user registration information with any third party without the user's consent unless required by law or in the good-faith belief that such action is necessary to conform to the edicts of the law, to cooperate with law enforcement agencies, or to comply with a legal process served on the Foundation.

Site activity is tracked by Google Web Analytics. You should refer to Google's Privacy Policy to learn how information is collected and used. You can find Google's Privacy Policy here: <https://www.google.com/intl/en/policies/privacy/>

Users have the option to request their registration information be deleted from the wallacefoundation.org website at any time. To do so, contact us.

When you visit the globalpeaceletstalk.org website, a "cookie" will be sent to your computer. A cookie is a piece of data that identifies you as a unique user. The movement uses cookies on this website to improve its quality and usefulness. The Foundation does this by storing user preferences in cookies and by tracking broad trends and patterns of how users search.

Most browsers are initially set up to accept cookies. You can reset your browser to refuse all cookies or to indicate when a cookie is being sent. Please note, however, that some parts of the services offered by this website may not function properly if you refuse cookies.

This privacy notice discloses the privacy practices for the movement. Although the website also contains links to sites operated by third parties, this privacy notice applies solely to information collected by this website. Links to other sites in no way imply endorsement or control of the content of those sites. Our privacy policy does not apply to those linked sites.
